PROFILE / CAREER OBJECTIVE

I started sailing boats at the age of 14. I have been on the water since then and more recently started diving underneath. I made a career as a Naval officer. Additionally I became a naval pilot, flying search and rescue and ship's helicopter on board frigates. Serving as Head of Coast Guard in the Caribbean gave me an extended view of events at sea.

I recently left the service and am based in Mallorca.

I aim to provide management, yachtsmanship and high standard ship's helicopter knowledge to owners and builders of sail and motor yachts of all dimensions, worldwide.

PREVIOUS MARITIME EXPERIENCE

2011	Obtained license chief-mate for sailing boats up to 3000GT including square-rigged.
2010	Manager and skipper of 60ft Contest sailing yacht at Gran Canaria and Mallorca
2004-2009	Deliveries as skipper/navigator on 50-60ft Contest sailing yachts. Visiting: Kiel, Medemblik, Brunsbüttel, Southampton, Cannes, Palma de Mallorca and Ostend.

I sailed the North Sea, Baltic, Northern Atlantic, Caribbean, Artic Sea, Red Sea, Pacific, Indian Ocean and Mediterranean.

ADDITIONAL WORK EXPERIENCE

Commanding officer Air Force Apache Air base
 HR-manager
 Qualified pilot Fokker Friendship, Cessna Citation, Beechcraft Bonanza, Saab Safire
 Career-officer Royal Netherlands Navy 1976-2008

HOBBIES AND LEISURE ACTIVITIES

Classic cars: I posses two Citroën DS and like to do maintenance and bodywork on cars. Being member of car clubs I obtained in-depth knowledge of restoration, polishing and painting.

Carpentry: I enjoyed making windows, doors and furniture at a workshop.

Sailing: I enjoy sailing Sunfish races and was selected for World Championship 2001 in Antigua. I like to sail yachts in the Mediterranean. Living in the Caribbean I found yacht sailing in the BVI to be the perfect leisure activity for me.
